Experience the Gospel 23rd Sunday Ordinary Time

How many times in our life have you recommitted to being a "better person" and decided to "love more"? If you're like most Catholics, you've gone through the motions of commitment more than a few times. We do it multiple times a year in the liturgy when we renew our baptismal promises. But, as Catholics know, making a commitment to following the gospel and church teaching is not the same as following them, because it's hard to reorient to follow the Lord. "For the corruptible body burdens the soul/and the earthen shelter weighs down the mind that has many concerns."

Cluster & Diocesan News

Message from Fr. John O'Kane

Many have heard that I was in Glens Falls Hospital for a brief visit. Medications needed to be adjusted that impacted both my body and mind. It appears to be straightened out. I want to thank those who have offered prayers or assistance or both. These acts are HUGE to me! I am so blessed by all our people that magnifies the churches. Together we will continue the mission of Jesus Christ, up here, in the Adirondacks. God Bless, Fr. John O'Kane
