FORGIVE ONE ANOTHER!

Jesus teaches us that to attain salvation, we must forgive one another "from your hearts," and we must do so "seventy-seven times." To forgive one another from the heart means letting go completely of the hurt done to us, letting go completely of resentment toward the one who has hurt us, letting go completely of efforts both blatant and subtle to make the person pay for the hurt rendered. We can let go completely of a hurt only when we remember how often and immeasurably God forgives us. Copyright, Living Liturgy 2017
